Tips for the application?
The Vice President of Student Affairs has established a fund for campus diversity initiatives. The goal of the diversity fund is to support initiatives that promote understanding, inclusion, and acceptance within the University of Georgia community.

More information at studentaffairs.uga.edu.

- Complete the request form to be considered for funding.
- The UGA student body must be the primary audience of these diversity initiatives.
- The fund is open to initiatives by any student organization.
- Proposals should be able to demonstrate that the initiative will benefit the campus community.
- The fund is intended to be used toward essential costs of the initiative including but not limited to honoraria, speaker travel costs, initiative-specific printing costs, and space reservations.
- Maximum amount awarded per initiative is $500 (average award $400-$500).
RHA uses a portion of its funds to provide allocations for organizations putting on programs which will benefit the residents living on campus.

More information at rha.uga.edu.

- Submit an allocation request on the RHA website
- Attended 2 RHA General Body meetings
- Present at both an RHA Executive Board meeting as well as an RHA General Body meeting
- The organization’s account number
