TRANSFER STUDENT PEER MENTOR PROGRAM

The Center of Student Activities and Involvement is seeking Transfer Student Peer Mentors to work with incoming transfer students to assist in their success transition into the University of Georgia.

Peer Mentors will serve as academic, leadership, and social role models for UGA undergraduate transfer students by sharing their own successes and lessons learned related to:

- Utilizing campus resources.
- Managing and balancing their time.
- Demonstrating leadership in campus and community activities.

Apply to: bit.ly/transferpeermentor by April 5th at 11:45 pm!

STILL LOOKING TO GET INVOLVED?

Reach out to one of our Involvement Ambassadors!

"Involvement Ambassadors are a select group of experienced student leaders who are passionate about serving as a resource for student involvement. Ambassadors serve as liaisons between student organizations and the rest of the student body by exemplifying the benefits of getting involved on campus, highlighting campus resources, and connecting students with involvement opportunities."

Involvement Ambassador's can provide Information about the University of Georgia’s 750+ student organizations and individualized and confidential one-on-one sessions with ambassadors to help you find the best organization fit for you.
